

ADA Australia
Your aged and disability advocates

Education Sessions

We provide free education sessions regarding ADA Australia and the provision of our advocacy services. These sessions are for staff and clients of residential aged care facilities, community care or aged care services, and community groups.

Clients of residential aged care facilities, community care or aged care services, and their carers

- What is advocacy
- Rights and responsibilities when receiving a community care or aged care service
- ADA Australia's advocacy service and how to access support
- Self advocacy
- Case studies

Staff of residential aged care facilities, community care or aged care services

- What is advocacy
- ADA Australia's advocacy service
- Client rights and responsibilities when receiving an aged care or community care service
- Why advocacy is important to your service
- Case studies

Students* or the community

- The role of advocacy in the context of the aged care and community care system
- The scope of ADA Australia's service and how to access support
- Client rights and responsibilities when receiving an aged care or community care service
- Case studies

Contact ADA Australia to discuss our tailored options available statewide:

Phone: 07 3637 6000 or 1800 818 338      Email: info@adaaustralia.com.au

Web: www.adaaustralia.com.au