

Project Officer

Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Disability Network of Qld (ATSIDNQ)

Part-time Position

Based in Brisbane, Rockhampton, or Townsville areas

The Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Disability Network of Queensland (ATSIDNQ) is a Queensland Government funded project managed by ADA Australia. The Network provides a platform for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people with disability, their families and carers to connect with each other and gain culturally safe information. ADA Australia is a state-wide, not-for-profit, independent, community-based advocacy and education service, supporting and improving the wellbeing of older people and people with disability.

ADA Australia is seeking applications for a suitably qualified part-time Project Officer - 24 hours per week (work days / hours negotiable) until 30 June 2021. The role is responsible for the project management of the ATSIDNQ and its project deliverables. This position is a SACS level 5.1 position under the Social, Community, Home Care and Disability Services Industry Award 2010, with pay rates in accordance with the Fair Work (Transitional Provisions and Consequential Amendments) Amendment Regulation 2012 (No. 2).

ADA Australia offers a flexible, family friendly and inclusive workplace, which values workplace diversity within the team. Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islanders and people with a disability are encouraged to apply.

For a copy of the position description and comprehensive application package, or for further information regarding ADA Australia or ATSIDNQ, please see our websites www.adaaustralia.com.au / www.atsidnq.com.au or contact Geoff Rowe on (07) 3637 6000.

Please note that applicants are requested to submit their resume, application form, and a response to the key selection criteria as outlined in the Position Description (maximum of 2 pages).

Applications close: Thursday 29th November 2018
